MOSCOW, June 23.—Soviet Russia today called up 5,000-000 additional men to stem the sudden German invasion of the U. S. S. R. as an augmented communique dealing with yesterday's operations said that Nazi Panzer divisions had been repulsed "with heavy losses."

(International News Service)
MOSCOW, June 23.—
Thousands upon thousands of troops are holding the Panzer legions of Chancellor
Hitler at bay.

That was the announcement that came from the Soviet high command in the form of a military communique today as fighting raged along a gigantic front of more than 2,000 miles from the Baltic to the Black Sea.
(EDITOR'S NOTE: The London Daily Mirror reported from Ankara that Russian forces have thrust into the east Prussia sector of Germany, dropping parachute troops.)

The communique announced that no less than 65 German planes had been shot down in attacks on Soviet airbases and cities.

Shortly before the military bulletin was issued a proclamation de-

Fourth Victim Of Fire Is Dead

Death Of James Doyle, Sr., Occurs In Sharon Hospital Sunday Evening

FUNERAL FOR FOUR TUESDAY

Death claimed the fourth victim of the disastrous fire which swept the home of James Doyle of Pulaski township early Saturday morning, trapping the entire family in the blazing structure, from which the father and five sons escaped. The father dying in the Buhl hospital at Sharon Sunday evening.

Mr. Doyle was terribly burned about the body, arms and legs in rescuing his five sons, asleep in the same room with him, throwing the boys out of the window to safety.
He was 38 years of age.

The mother, Mrs. Pearl Doyle, aged 31, and the two daughters,
Nora May, aged 9, and Betty June, aged 6, were burned to death. The mother rushing back into the blazing structure from the home of her father, Harry W. Root, nearby, where she had gone only a few minutes before the fire broke out,
to try and save the two little girls.

Funeral services for the four will take place from the Anderson funeral home in Hubbard, O., Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and burial will take place at West Middlesex.

German Planes Raid R. A. F. Bases

Ports Along Southeast Coast Of Britain Also Attacked
During Night

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)
BERLIN, June 23.—German planes were declared today to have raided several R. A. F. bases and ports along the southeast coast of Britain during the night including Chatham.

A high command announcement said one R. A. F. bomber, "obviously en route to Germany," was shot down over English soil.

A 5,000-ton vessel has sunk and a 4,000-ton ship was severely damaged by German planes 45 miles east of the Humber and a third 6,000-ton ship was heavily damaged east of Scotland, according to the war communique.

The announcement also stated a German vessel shot down a British bomber into the English channel.
Strong Luftwaffe formations were said to have heavily bombed the British Mediterranean naval base of Alexandria, causing explosions and large fires in military establishments.

U. S. Government May Join Britain In Aiding Russia

WASHINGTON, June 23.—
Authoritative diplomatic quarters in Washington today predicted that the United States government will join Great Britain in a policy of aiding Soviet Russia to hold out against Germany as long as possible.

The aim of the United States and Britain in this latest sensational development of the war is likely, it was said, to be encouragement of Russian resistance in the hope it may eventually exhaust Hitler's military might and pave the way for a British victory over Germany in the west.

May Lend Assistance
In line with this policy, these diplomatic sources said, the United States and Britain may lend some material assistance to the Soviets to enable them to continue fighting without helping them to the extent where they could achieve any decisive communistic military victory over Germany.

It is considered certain in Washington that the British of all people would not want communism to be the savior of the world from Nazism, but it is felt that as long as the Russians keep fighting, Britain's chances of delivering the knock-out blow to Hitler are immeasurably increased.

May Exhaust Nazis
Little possibility is seen that the Soviets will be able to defeat Nazi

partments Demand
Raise

PRESENT REQUEST TO CITY COUNCIL

Three score employees of the City Employees organization voted to strike this afternoon. They are employed in the streets, sewer and garbage departments.

After having conferred with council this morning, the men drove their trucks into their respective departments and this afternoon took a strike vote. None returned to work this afternoon.

They had asked for wage boosts from 50 and 55 cents an hour for unskilled and skilled labor to 70 and 75 cents an hour, an increase which council said could not be granted now.

The garbage furnace is operating and will be kept open. Superintendent Howard Phillips reported, receive garbage taken there in private trucks.

At 1:15 p. m. Mayor Mayne and Councilman Davies said they had not been officially notified of the strike. Councilman Dunlap could not be reached.

The officers of the employees organization are: president, Harold Jarrett; vice president, Cecil Basley, and secretary, Joseph O'Leary.

Cecil Basley, chairman of the City Employees organization today appeared before council at a meeting in city hall and requested the city to raise the wages of employees of sewer, garbage and streets departments to 70 cents an hour for unskilled and 75 cents an hour for skilled labor.

Council said that because appropriations for 1941 had been arranged and also because of a shortage in anticipated receipts because of the failure of the state to forward approximately monies due

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., June 23.—
Cause of the disaster to the U. S.
navy submarine O-9, which cost 33
lives, may never be known.

A naval investigation will be held,
either at Portsmouth or New London, Conn., home base of the O-9.
But because every man on board was lost when the submarine went down, the inquiry no doubt will be a perfunctory affair.

The tragedy, in the opinion of navy officials, was an accident.
Beyond that conclusion, navy men are as much mystified as the average citizen. Sabotage—that they rule out.

The O-9 went into a routine practice dive at 8:36 o'clock Friday morning and never came up. Today, the ill-fated submarine is ly-

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, June 23.—The joy and cheer of a family reunion had turned to tears and tragedy today in the wake of an automobile accident which police said was caused when an intoxicated driver failed to negotiate a highway turn and plunged his car onto a lawn
at nearby Cuddy.

Dead was two-year-old Lois Mae Behling. Seriously injured were John Williamson, 48, the child's grandfather; his wife, Lena, 48, and their daughter, Mrs. Margaret Kirkpatrick, of Bishop, and the latter's one-year-old son, John.

The driver of the car, Joseph Yocius, 25, of Morgan, Pa., was examined by a Bridgeville physician, who declared him intoxicated, police said.

Authorities reported Yocius told them he was racing another car and while attempting to pass it, plunged from the highway, struck a pole and careened onto the Williamson lawn. Police said they

State Liquor Store At Erie Is Held Up

today searched the area for two armed bandits who held up a state

Saturday night and escaped in a stolen car with $1,100 cash.

Manager C. A. Parker and clerk

entered and forced Parker to open the safe. The bandits then locked them in the cellar, they said, and when they managed to escape ten minutes later they found the tele-

Assembly Headed For July Session

First Session Of Kind Since 1897

Final Adjournment Of Present Session May Come By July 4

BIG PROBLEMS STILL FACING LEGISLATURE

By RAYMOND WILCOVE
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HARRISBURG, June 23.—

The general assembly appeared headed today for the first regular July session since 1897, with legislative leaders pressing a determined drive for final adjournment by July 4.

Hopes were being expressed that the problems which have so far delayed the session's close will be ironed out this week and adjournment sine die made possible within the next 10 days.

The last time a regular session adjourned in July was 44 years ago when the general assembly went home on July 1 after an 178-day session. The present legislature has been in session since January 7.

As the legislators reconvened following a four-day recess, they faced the same problems which have so far delayed adjournment: congressional reapportionment, enactment of the personal property and bank shares taxes, and passage of a relief appropriation.

Stated For Action

Also slated to be acted upon this week were two house bills banning the employment by governmental agencies of communists and barring relief to communists. Still other anti-communist bills in committee some already passed by the senate, may also be reported out for probable enactment.

The senate was poised to take final action today on a temporary $7,000,000 appropriation for July relief, to replenish the $6,253,000 voted last Monday for June public assistance. House action is still needed.

Senate approval is also expected this week for a $100,000 deficiency appropriation for state licensing boards to replace the cut made by the house in the general appropriations bill which Gov. Arthur H. James was forced to accept in order to obtain funds to carry on governmental functions.

The appearance of the deficiency measure in the house is expected to be followed by the introduction there of deficiency bills to cover the cuts made in the general appropriations bill by Governor James. Considerable trading is expected to take place behind the scenes as each side attempts to get what it wants.

On tax anticipation notes—now apparently the big issue of this session—house majority leader Leo A. Acherman said he hoped some final agreement would be reached early this week. House and senate conferees are scheduled to hold another meeting today. Several previous discussions proved fruitless.

Until legislation is enacted authorizing the state to borrow money through the sale of tax anticipation notes to tide it over until tax receipts are in, only a few millions of dollars are actually available for immediate use. Secretary of Highways L. Lamont Huchins has already informed the governor his department will have to halt its activities by the end of the month unless further funds are forthcoming.

Hints On Etiquette

Don't flatter people to obtain their good will; but try to see their good points and play them up when you are with them and when speaking of them.

Germany alone. However, it is hoped they may be able to draw in and exhaust the German armies as Napoleon's forces were exhausted when he attempted to conquer the vastness that is Russia, reported withdrawal of the Soviet forces along the Polish and Rumanian borders led to the belief that the Red army's military commanders already have decided on this strategy.

If President Roosevelt does decide to respond favorably to British Prime Minister Winston Churchill's plea to join in aiding Russia, one of the first moves by this government may be to release a limited quantity of machine tools to the Soviets. Machine tools and cotton are two of the most important items Russia needs from this country for defense purposes. The recent discussions for improvement of Russo-American relations broke down because of this government's refusal to release machine tools to the Soviet Union.

Complicated Problem

The Soviets sudden appearance in the role of a victim of Nazi aggression, and Churchill's prompt promise of aid to Moscow, created a somewhat complicated problem for the American government.

One of the fundamental principles of American foreign policy as enunciated by President Roosevelt is to aid any victim of aggression. Russia is considered undoubtedly a victim of aggression, but at the moment most of the fighting is occurring on soil which the Soviets seized by aggressive action from Poland, Rumania and Finland. Hitherto, the American government has refused to recognize Russia's sovereignty over the territory she is now defending.

Now the administration is faced with the question of whether it should agree to extend lease-lend aid to the Soviets to help them retain the spoils of their recent aggression. Those who are in close touch with American foreign affairs predict the government will do so in the interests of the major policy of aiding Britain and bringing about the defeat of Nazism.

Station, there will be a band concert by the American Legion Cadet Band, starting at 7 o'clock. With Charles E. Allen presiding as master of ceremonies, little Alice Harper will cut the ribbon on the ambulance.

After which William Bowen, president of the firemen's First Aid Corps, will present the ambulance to Director of Public Safety, D. O. Davies.

Mr. Davies, will in turn, present the ambulance to the county, and it will be accepted by Judge Charles Matthews, Jr., thus dedicating the unit to service throughout the entire county.

Chairman Harry Culliford will then present the highway first aid station sign to Central Station, the band will play "God Bless America," which will conclude the program.

Immediately afterwards a caravan will proceed to the various fire stations which will be designated as Highway Emergency First Aid Stations, where the signs will be presented to them. These will be as follows: 8:40 o'clock Sixth ward; 9 o'clock Seventh ward; 9:25 o'clock No. 5 station in the Eighth ward; 9:55 o'clock Fourth ward; 10:10 o'clock Third ward; and 10:30 o'clock Second ward.

William L. Burton Dies Suddenly At Harrisburg

Apparently stricken with a heart attack, William L. Burton, 42, a New Castle man employed at the White Hill industrial school near Harrisburg, was found dead in bed Sunday morning June 22.

Mr. Burton had been a New Castle resident for about 17 years. He was employed as a fireman on the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie railroad for a number of years. Since 1929 he had been employed in the state industrial school. He was a native of Tusculum, Ala.

Mr. Burton served overseas in the infantry of the 26th Division. He was a member of the Party S. Gaston Post, No. 343, American Legion. At noon today an announcement had been made concerning the funeral arrangements.

ATTEMPT TO RESCUE U. S. SUB ABANDONED

Frank Knox, were held at the scene. Rescue work and salvage operations were abandoned.

Not a marking of any kind today indicates the scene of the disaster. Five bouquets of flowers were tossed overboard from the submarine Triton at the spot where the O-9 went down. These flowers were a final tribute to the gallant 31 enlisted men and two officers who went down in the O-9.

Rescue vessels, including the navy salvage tug Falcon, and the U.S. submarine O-6 and O-10, pulled away from the scene last night.

The saga of the O-9 had been written, and was now only a matter of tragic naval history.

What happened when the O-9 shot down into its last dive remained a mystery. Conjectures were numerous, but none bore any conclusive substantiation in fact. Nobody knew.

Two guesses took precedence over many other conjectures. They were: 1, possibly there had been an explosion in the engine room, or 2, one of the air induction lines had become ruptured.

It was fairly well determined that the O-9 was "crushed like an egg shell" at the bottom of the ocean. Oil came up to the surface, and as well bits of wreckage such as cork, teakwood and deck gratings. Some of this material was from the interior of the O-9.

Predominant opinion was that the final inquiry would result in a finding that the cause of the O-9 disaster was unknown.

The final act of the sea tragedy was marked by pathos. Secretary Knox, at the memorial service, was on the verge of tears. He paid high tribute to the gallantry of the O-9 personnel. He was deeply moved as a 21-gun salute fired at the scene and he, and others, tossed bouquets of flowers overboard at the spot where the submarine went down.

Not one relative of the victims was present at the memorial service which was broadcast by radio.

The ceremony was witnessed by 1,000 persons aboard a dozen ships lying at anchor at the scene.

Secretary Knox will now send letters expressing deep regret to the relatives of the men who lost their lives.

The O-9 disaster will go down as another of those unexplained sea mysteries, with the victims characterized as heroes who died in the line of duty.

Unlike the submarine Squid disaster of May 25, 1939, not one member of the O-9 was saved. Twenty-six men died on the Squid, and 33 were rescued. The last eight survivors of the Squid were brought up 39 hours after the ship sank during a test crash dive. In the case of the O-9 it became established through divers' efforts in less than 48 hours that none was alive to be saved.

BRITISH FLIERS HAMMER NAZIS

explosions were reported in the south and southeast sections of the metropolis.

The British air ministry dismissed the Nazi attack with this account: "A small number of enemy aircraft flew over during the night. Bombs were dropped on a few places, mostly in east and southeast England. There was little damage and few casualties."

At the same time the air ministry said 30 German planes were shot down yesterday and last night as the R. A. F. pounded objectives along the Nazi-occupied continental coast.

Escorted by huge fleets of fighters, British bombers dashed across the channel by daylight and in darkness to pour high explosives on the Calais-Boulogne area.

The body has been removed to the Joseph B. Leyde mortuary, Highland at Winter, where funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with his pastor, Rev. Robert E. Douglas, in charge. Interment will be in the Neshaunock U. P. church cemetery.

The family will receive friends at the mortuary this evening from 7 to 9 o'clock.

Survivors are his wife, Mary E. Wilson, and his daughter, Mrs. W. R. Gealy in New Galilee, this morning at 8:35 o'clock following an illness of two years duration. She had been confined to bed for the past three weeks.

Mrs. Wilson, born in Darlington on March 10, 1871, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Anderson, was a member of the United Presbyterian church of New Galilee. She was widely known in the vicinity in which she lived.

Survivors are one daughter, Mrs. W. R. Gealy, with whom she resided; one granddaughter, Erdine Gealy, at home; one grandson, Paul Gealy of Buffalo, N. Y.; five sisters, Miss Olive Anderson, Miss Jessie Anderson, Mrs. C. P. Gerwig, Mrs. L. S.

Deaths of the Day

Frank Edward Williams

Complications following an illness of two years duration resulted in the death of Frank Edward Williams, aged 60, of 1308 Delaware avenue, who passed away Sunday, June 22, in Oswego, N. Y., while visiting at the home of his niece, Mrs. Nana Russell.

Mr. Williams, born in Blaenavon, South Wales, on July 22, 1880, son of William P. and Mary A. Williams, had resided in New Castle for the past 45 years. He had been a post office clerk retiring from that position in 1933. Prior to entering the postal service, Mr. Williams had been employed in the hot mill of the Shenango tin plant for a number of years. He was a member of the First Baptist church and Lodge of the Craft, No. 433, P. and A. M.

Survivors are one nephew and two nieces, William J. Jenkins of New Kensington; Mrs. Nana Russell of Oswego, N. Y.; Mrs. Florence Cope of Columbus, O.; and one brother, James P. Williams, of Warren, Pa. Mr. Williams was a brother of the late Mrs. W. C. Jenkins, 1308 Delaware avenue, and made his home with the Jenkins family.

Funeral services will be conducted Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the residence, 1308 Delaware avenue, with Dr. Frank Hollinshead, interim pastor of the First Baptist church, in charge. Interment will be in Oak Park cemetery.

The body will be at the Ritchie funeral home, South Mill street, until Tuesday afternoon, when it will be removed to the residence.

Miss Elizabeth Brewster

Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Brewster of Mt. Jackson have received word of the death of the former's aunt, Miss Elizabeth Brewster, who passed away Sunday morning in San Jose, Calif. She was a former resident of Mt. Jackson and had spent many years teaching in mission schools in the south. Miss Brewster was the last surviving member of her immediate family.

Miss Elizabeth Brewster of Court street is a niece of the deceased.

Funeral services and interment will take place Tuesday afternoon in San Jose.

Infant Headland

Ernest Frederick Headland, three-day-old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Headland, New Castle, R. D. 1, died Saturday morning at 11:55 o'clock, in the Jameson Memorial hospital.

The baby was born June 18. Interment was made Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in Oak Park cemetery, with Rev. G. Edward Shaffer, pastor of the Greenwood Methodist church, in charge.

Surviving are the parents, one brother, Bruce, and the grandparents.

Daniel Floyd

Daniel Floyd, aged 49, of New Castle, R. D. 3, passed away Saturday afternoon at 3:35 o'clock in the veterans' hospital at Chullicone, O. where he had been a patient since May 13 of this year. He had been ill for the past 12 years and had been treated in hospitals at Dayton and Hines, O., undergoing an operation recently at Hines. He was recuperating at Chullicone when he was stricken suddenly last Friday night.

Mr. Floyd was born February 21, 1892, in New Castle, son of Thomas and Minnie Young Floyd. He was a member of Neshaunock U. P. church. Mr. Floyd enlisted in the United States army in New Castle on August 12, 1918. He was a private in the veterinarian corps and was a member of Company A, E. D. 301. He was discharged January 10, 1919.

Surviving are his wife, Mary E. Floyd, and the following children, William D. Floyd, Dorothy E. Kerr, and a daughter, Jean E. Gier. Mr. Floyd was a member of the Neshaunock U. P. church.

At the suggestion of council City Clerk C. E. Brown read a letter sent by Finance Director James L. Fink to council some time ago concerning a request made by the city employees would result in an increase to the $223,000 city payroll of $32,300.

Fink's letter also declared the state health department had ordered repairs at the city sewage disposal plant which would cost $103,000. He further stated today the state had not sent the city and does not intend to until legislation is adopted accepting the governor's estimate receipts, about $19,000 from liquor fees.

Mayor Charles B. Mayne said the city could not give a raise at this time of the year because the appropriations, based from the income from taxes and anticipated receipts, such as parking fees, police court fines and liquor fees had been determined upon months ago and the city now faces a deficit.

Where To Get Money

Councilman D. O. Davies said that were it possible to grant a raise he would be willing to do so and advise that "if you got a man who can show us where we can get the money without borrowing we will be glad to grant it." It was then that Basley advanced the "borrow for us" suggestion.

"That is easier said than done," Davies replied.

Basley said that the need for more money is imperative. He cited the cost of living has increased considerably.

Councilman W. H. Dunlap asked the employees to name a committee to confer with Finance Director Fink who would explain how the budget was made up, show where the money comes from and the money available.

No immediate answer to this was given by Spokesman Basley.

"Do something as soon as possible," concluded Basley to council.

"That won't be this year," Mayor Mayne replied.

The police and firemen did not have a spokesman. Members of both bodies were in the audience.

Dixon, all of the North Side, Pittsburgh; Mrs. O. A. Dilley of Greenville, and three brothers, W. W. Anderson of New Galilee, H. C. Anderson of the North Side, Pittsburgh, and I. H. Anderson, New Brighton.

Funeral services will be conducted from the Gealy home Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock (E. S. T.) with her pastor, Rev. W. W. Willis, in charge. Private interment will be made Thursday morning at 10 o'clock in the Darlington Reformed Presbyterian cemetery.

The body has been removed to the Mahoning funeral home and will be taken to the residence this evening.

Morris M. Henlein

A former resident of New Castle, Morris M. Henlein, passed away Sunday evening in Erie where he was residing. Mr. Henlein had been in failing health for about a year.

He was grand president of the state of Pennsylvania of the Protected Home Circle and had one more year to serve in that office.

A sister in Cleveland survives. Funeral services will be held on Wednesday in Erie.

Mrs. Doult Funeral

Funeral services for Mrs. Arthur A. Doult, 608 Court street, were conducted Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the Second U. P. church with the pastor, Rev. J. Calvin Rose, officiating.

Pallbearers were Clarence, Eugene, William and David Doult, Arlie Shifflet and James Reed.

Interment was in Savannah cemetery.

Ritchie Services

Requiem high mass for Thomas Mingo Ritchie, 507 Canyon street, was celebrated this morning at 9 o'clock from St. Vitus church with Rev. Fr. Joseph A. Abbate as celebrant.

Pallbearers were Paul Micco, William DeLillo, Joan Fair, Alex Ritchie, Sam DeStefano and Frank Paglia.

Interment was in St. Vitus cemetery, with Rev. Fr. Abbate also conducting the committal service.

Mrs. Eastman Funeral

Funeral services for Mrs. Harry P. Eastman, Willoughby, O. were conducted Saturday afternoon at three o'clock from the Joseph B. Leyde mortuary, Highland at Winter, with Rev. Griffith Thomas in charge, assisted by Rev. John G. Cooke, of Milwaukee, Wis.

During services two selections were sung by the congregation. The Welsh resurrection song was sung by the congregation at the grave.

Pallbearers were Robert Reese, David Williams, Emerson Davies, David Davies, George Bender and Edward Spencer.

Miss Cronin Funeral

Requiem high mass for Miss Nellie Cronin of Dikmont was celebrated this morning at 10:30 o'clock in St. Mary's church with Rev. Fr. William P. Galvin as celebrant.

Pallbearers were Joseph Heany, Glenn Nicholson, Peter Quinn, Albert Gettings, Patrick Craney and John B. Hogue.

Rev. Fr. Galvin also conducted the committal service at the grave in St. Mary's cemetery.

from liquor license fees, it would be impossible at this time to grant the request.

Basley who was accompanied by several score city employees, which included police and firemen, said that the increased cost of living was responsible for the request for a raise in wages. He asserted that if the city could borrow money to pay off city debts, the city should borrow to pay the raise desired.

Asks Consideration

Basley said that the City Employee organization had not come to city hall "on a strike" but they did want the council to consider the request. He said some employees have been in service 24 years. Basley declared that unskilled mill laborers $5.92 a day.

At the suggestion of council City Clerk C. E. Brown read a letter sent by Finance Director James L. Fink to council some time ago concerning a request made by the city employees would result in an increase to the $223,000 city payroll of $32,300.

JOINT BRITISH SOVIET BATTLE NOW PREDICTED

cially in heavy bombers—will begin to swing the scales of war in favor of Britain and her allies.

Warned Russia

That Chancellor Hitler, whom he described as a "monster of wickedness," had attacked Russia came as no surprise to him, Churchill declared. He said he had warned Soviet Premier Josef Stalin of a coming German invasion.

Asserting the present attack on Russia is a prelude to an attempted Nazi invasion of Britain, Churchill said:

"Hitler hopes, no doubt, that all this can be accomplished before winter comes, and if he can overwhelm Great Britain before the fleets and air power of the United States might intervene, he hopes that he might once again repeat that process of destroying his enemies one by one by which he has so long thrived and prospered."

Churchill warned that a defeat of Britain would "clear the scene for the final act without which all conquest would be in vain, namely, the subjugation of the western hemisphere to his will and to his system."

The first, Churchill said, was the fall of France. The second was the R. A. F. defeat of the Luftwaffe over the channel, the third was the enactment of the United States' lend-lease measure.

SWEDEN SEEKS TO STAY NEUTRAL

papers stressed the desire of the Swedish government to remain outside the sphere of the Russo-German war.

Colonel Bratt, a noted Swedish military writer, estimated that Germany, including her Finnish and Rumanian allies, has hurled 175 divisions including 10 Panzer divisions, against Russia. The major German attack, he wrote, was launched in Soviet-occupied Poland.

Editor's note: Hitler, in his proclamation Sunday, charged Russia had lined up 180 divisions along the German border.

Russian bombing attacks on Finnish warships and merchant vessels and also on Finnish island possessions were reported in press dispatches from Helsinki today.

Four Soviet planes were declared to have attacked defense works at Alsaker, causing slight damage.

Foreign embassies and legations in Stockholm said they understood Finland intended to protest to Moscow against these Russian bombardments. These quarters interpreted this as a sign that Finland plans to remain neutral in the Russo-German war.

MARION JEANNE VOGAN WEDS JOSEPH GREER

This morning in the Epworth Methodist church, Miss Marion Jeanne Vogan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Vogan of Highland avenue, became the bride of Joseph Greer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Greer of East Washington street.

The marriage vows were exchanged at 10 o'clock with Rev. C. T. Greer, of Meadville, uncle of the groom, officiating with the single ring service being assisted by Rev. William A. Thornton.

For her wedding the bride chose a blue suit with brown and white accessories, and her shoulder corsage was of orchids.

Miss Elizabeth Erce, as her maid of honor, was attired in blue with navy and white accessories, and an orchid corsage.

Russell W. Love served the bridegroom as best man.

Following the wedding ceremony the bridegroom was served in the groom's home, with Mrs. Henry Fletcher and Mrs. Irene Cagle as bridesmaids.

Later today the couple will leave for Lake Chautauque, and upon their return will be 'at home' at 206 1/2 Walnut street.

The bride is a graduate of the New Castle Senior High school and is associated with Strouss-Hirshberg's.

Mr. Greer also graduated from the local high school and is affiliated at The Castleton hotel.

McCLURE-BYERS NUPTIALS IN CHURCH

Gowned in the traditional cream colored satin, made en train, with a finger-tip veil of tulle caught in a Juliet cap of seed pearls, and carrying white roses and stephanotis, Miss Jane Esther McClure, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. McClure of New Castle R. D. 5, was a picture of beauty for her marriage to William Franklin Byers, son of Rev. and Mrs. W. P. Byers of New Wilmington, Saturday in the Neshaunock Presbyterian church.

The wedding ceremony was performed at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon, with Rev. W. F. Byers, father of the groom, officiating with the impressive single ring ceremony.

Proceeding the ceremony Miss Ruth Sewall church organist played a half hour recital of nuptial selections including "June Barcarole" by Tschakovsky, "Prayer" by Schubert, "Liebestraum," Liszt, Theme from a Symphony, Tschakovsky, "Traumerei," Schumann, and "Moonlight Sonata," Beethoven. Jane Byers, sister of the groom, sang "Because" and "Ave Maria" by Schubert.

Miss Kathryn McClure, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Martha and Jane Byers. They were all attired in turquoise bengaline frocks and wore matching bouquets, and their dainty bouquets were of shasta daisies and marguerites.

Ralph Simpson of Corcora served the bridegroom as best man and ushers were Joseph and Frank McClure.

Immediately following the congratulatory period in the church a reception took place at the Tavern for members of the immediate families.

After a southern wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Byers will be at home to their friends at 317 Vine street, New Wilmington.

The bride has been employed at the Bell Telephone Company in Sharon and Mr. Byers is assistant manager of the Personal Finance Company in New Castle.

SECTION ONE TO MEET WEDNESDAY

Mrs. J. H. Meyer will open her home at 204 East Winter avenue to members of section 1, First Christian church, Wednesday afternoon. Following a one o'clock luncheon, the regular business session will be conducted.

PORTEOUS-BROWN WEDDING SATURDAY

Before the beautifully embanked altar of ferns, palms, and white roses interspersed with candelabra, in the First Baptist church, Saturday afternoon, Miss Margaret Porteous, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Paul Porteous of Moody avenue, became the bride of William L. Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Brown of Chicago, Ill. Adding to the impressiveness of the ceremony was the fact that the bride chose the twenty-sixth wedding anniversary of her parents to be married.

The wedding ceremony was performed in the presence of a large gathering of friends with Rev. Frank Hollinshead, pastor, officiating with the single ring ceremony.

Mrs. W. H. Laikart, organist, played nuptial music preceding the service and Miss Theod. Gooch sang "At Dawning" by Cadman. An organ nuptial "O Love That Will Not Let Me Go" was given by Miss Elizabeth Lewis. During the ceremony Mrs. Laikart played "I Love You Truly" and "O Promise Me" and for the recessional played Mendelssohn's Wedding March.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was beautiful in a long flowing gown of white lace and net, with a satin, tunic, made en train, and her voluminous veil of lace and net was attached in a halo coronet of satin. Her only jewelry was a three strand necklace of pearls, gift of the groom. White rosebuds and stephanotis were used in her colonial bridal bouquet.

Miss Florence Pyle, as maid of honor, wore a flowered orange gown with bouffant skirt. As bridesmaids, Mrs. Charles Gearin and Mrs. Donald Hackett were gowning in pink and green colonial frocks, with gardenias in their hair. Colonial nosegays of summer frocks were carried by the bride's attendants.

George Brown, of Chicago, and brother of the groom, served as best man. Ushers were William G. Brown of Omar, W. Va., and Donald C. Porteous, brother of the bride.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception took place in the bride's home for 150 friends and relatives after which the couple left for an eastern trip. After July 1, they will be at home in their new apartment at 114 North Albany street, Chicago, Ill.

The bride is a graduate of the New Castle senior high school, Griffith beauty school, and for the past five years has been affiliated with the Eleanor Crawford beauty shop. Mr. Brown graduated from the John Marshall high school in Chicago, the Moody Bible Institute, and is a student at the North Baptist Theological Seminary.

MRS. HENRY WETTICH IS FETED AT SHOWER

Mrs. Clifford McDaniel, Mrs. M. L. Reynolds and Mrs. John K. Bost entertained a group of friends at luncheon Saturday at 1:30 o'clock in the former's home on Country Club drive, Ellwood City, in honor of Mrs. Henry Wettich, nee Geraldine Turner, a bride of recent date.

Following the serving of a delicious menu, hours were enjoyed in contract with prizes going to Mrs. Ted Knauft and Mrs. J. Buquo.

The honoree was presented with a lovely gift from the group and many little kitchen utensils were cleverly given to Mrs. Wettich.

LATSKO-SMIALOWSKI WEDDING IN CHURCH

A pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Michael's church on Saturday which united in marriage Miss Elizabeth Latisko, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Latisko of Fulton street, and John Smialowski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Smialowski of Magee street.

In the presence of many friends and relatives, vows were exchanged at 9:30 o'clock, the single ring service being performed by the Rev. Fr. William M. Pisarcik, pastor.

Mrs. John Latisko, mother of the bride, provided organ selections.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a white gown of embroidered marquisette. She wore a fingertip veil, with a crown of orange blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of white roses.

Miss Ann Kolesar, a cousin of the bride as maid of honor, wore pink marquisette, made in the colonial style, and carried a bouquet of pink roses and snapdragons. Miss Eleanor Krause, bridesmaid, wore a blue marquisette gown, patterned similar to that of the maid of honor, and carried a bouquet of pink roses and snapdragons.

Little Carolyn Ann Richards, niece of the bride, as ring-bearer, wore blue dotted organdie and carried a small cushion, with streamers of valley lilies.

Walter Smialowski served his brother as best man, and ushering was Louis Kwok.

A breakfast was served to the immediate families in the church hall after the ceremony, and at 3:30 o'clock a wedding dinner was served to relatives and friends. A reception for friends of the young couple was held in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Smialowski departed later on a wedding trip, and upon their return will reside in Oakland.

Mr. Smialowski attended Union high school and is employed at the American Can Works.

Mrs. Sophie Hascko, an aunt of the bride from Passaic, N. J., and her grandchildren, Bobby and Harry, were out-of-town guests.

CARTWRIGHT-HANNA ENGAGEMENT NEWS

PADULA-DESALVO WEDDING IN CHURCH

Before a gathering of friends and relatives in St. Vitus church on Saturday morning, Miss Lena Padula, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Padula of 410 Hawthorne street, and David DeSalvo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank DeSalvo, of East Brook, were united in marriage.

In a beautiful ceremony performed at 8:30 o'clock.

The Rev. Fr. Nicholas DeMita officiated at the service using the single ring ceremony.

The bride was appropriately decorated with ferns and flowers.

The bride was attractive in a white French chiffon gown, with sweetheart neckline, embellished with lilies of the valley, made entrain.

Her long veil of net was caught with a peaked seed pearl crown, and she carried a bouquet of Madonnas lilies. She wore a locket, a gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Modiste Diana, cousin of the bride, of Shrub Oak, N. Y., was maid of honor and wore pink chiffon, and a pink and blue headpiece.

Her bouquet was of Johanna Hill roses.

Dominic Damico served the bridegroom as best man.

A dinner was served in the bride's home after the ceremony, with places marked for 50 guests.

In the evening a reception was held for friends and relatives of the couple.

Mr. and Mrs. DeSalvo departed later on a wedding trip to Philadelphia, Washington, D. C., Atlanta City and Cumberland. Upon their return on July 1, they will be "at home" to friends at 1420 Croton avenue.

Mr. DeSalvo, a graduate of the New Castle high school, class of June 36, and the New Castle Business College, was affiliated in the office of the Neisner Brothers company.

Mr. DeSalvo attended East Brook high school, and is in the agricultural business with his father.

Out-of-town guests were Alice D'Andrea, Morgan, Pa.; Frank Baron of Monaca, Pa.; Frank Carovale, New Kensington; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D'Andrea, Pittsburgh; and Teresa Diano, of Shrub Oak, N. Y.

from a stand prematurely taken and unjustified by the facts. The cause of their suffering was the extraordinary letter which, with no warning and no effort to harmonize it with his previous utterances, Mr. Murray sent out to his whole organization.

WITH an established anti-Communist reputation, months ago Mr. Murray called upon all patriotic men to wage relentless war on Communists, Nazis and Fascists until they had been "driven from our shores." This, coupled with his more recent statements, made his letter somewhat sensational, because, as some of his distressed friends now write, it seemed from it that he not only did not want to drive the Communists from our shores but he did not even want to drive them out of the CIO. Instead he spoke disparagingly of "Red baiting", insisted that he had no idea of lending himself to any form of blood-cleaning and asserted that notions of that sort came from those who wanted to "divide labor's ranks." He deplored talk about purges, splits and cleanups and assured the CIO that there would be no change in "fundamental policies."

SO clearly was the effect of the Murray letter to entrench the Communists whom he had formerly denounced that the "bleeding hearts" who had rushed to pin medals on him last week now rushed to yank them off his shrunken chest. It

Gaston Park Animal Exhibit Gets Attention

All the animals within the animal house at Gaston park are doing well.

In the first pen are the hedgehogs or porcupines, a male, a female and her youngsters four weeks old. The female was presented to Mr. Fox for the animal house the latter part of November. The young porcupine, though small, resembles a newly born black bear cub.

Next we come to the two pheasants, with their tireless movements back and forth in their enclosure. In the next compartment are a pair of cream colored doves, with black neck rings. Then we come to the cage of a pair of great horned owls. These birds also claim much attention from those who frequent the park. Although these large birds have been in captivity for six years, the still retain their savage nature. In their native habitat they are considered to be great killers of small wildlife. They sit for hours watching the activity of their next door neighbor, the skunk. On numerous occasions they have attempted to ensnare this animal, and only strong screaming "has saved his bacon". This skunk was raised by Mr. Fox from but a few weeks old, and fed milk from a bottle for a couple of months. The animal is quite docile, and a beautiful specimen. A pair of raccoons are occupants of another cage, one black, the other a greyish brown. The black specimen was a gift of Wyatt R. Campbell this spring, and the other has been in captivity about three years. These animals are ever on the alert, and grab a sparrow occasionally that makes the fatal mistake of getting into their cage seeking for food. These "coons" know and respect their neighbor, the fourth porcupine, not desiring to run the risk of a paw or muzzle being filled with a former's quills.

Although the heavy wire partition separates the coons from the groundhogs on the other side, the former sometimes endeavor to grasp the groundhog with their paws, but the latter is too elusive, keeping out of harm's way. The coons are great fighters and will give a dog a mighty battle. Mr. Fox states that the coon's front paws are the most dainty and sensitive of all wildlife.

Mr. Groundhog that oft mentioned weather forecaster in February, puts the barefoot boy's whistle to shame. This animal, at dusk, in the quietude, gives its shrill whistle, especially in the fall, which can be heard a long distance. While still in captivity, these animals have not lost their wild traits, for, upon hearing the least strange noise, they are soon sitting on their haunches, viewing the surroundings carefully. Mr. Fox states that groundhogs are hard to keep in captivity, as their strange sharp teeth will cut through wire, almost like cutting through wood.

Mr. Fox gives these birds and animals careful attention, and looks well after their feeding and welfare.

BERLIN REPORTS HITLER'S LEGIONS PUSH FORWARD

blows were declared to have "hit the reds in vital spots," as the German forces launched a vast scale attack by aerial bombing and artillery fire.

Already, authorities said, the German operations began to unfold as a systematic and manifold drive against Moscow.

Brest Litovsk, situated east of the Bug river in former Polish territory, took a pounding such as never has been witnessed in previous wars.

This historic city, scene of the signing of the treaty that signaled Germany's World War victory over Russia in 1917, has for centuries been noted as one of the mightiest military key points in eastern Europe.

But today, German authorities said, Brest Litovsk was being rocked, and its defenders were left "dazed" under the fiery blizzard that exploded upon it.

Claim Fort Taken
Already one of the main defense forts at Brest Litovsk has surrendered under the crushing weight of the German onslaught.

German authorities said the fort was taken under the cover of darkness when German infantry, supported by rapidly moving light artillery, burst over the ramparts with fixed bayonets, hurling a rain of hand grenades as they charged.

In scarcely more than a few minutes, German officials said, the infantrymen captured the "stupified" Russian defenders, who were trembling like aspen leaves from the effects of the bombardment.

Whether the formidable and complex system of the Brest Litovsk forts can long withstand the terrific German attack was a question that appeared extremely doubtful to German authorities.

They said that the fall of Brest Litovsk would rip a "fatal breach" in the red army front.

Staking Everything
Meanwhile, it was evident to eyewitnesses of the German attack that Hitler's blitz troops are staking everything on a plan to paralyze the red army quickly before being drawn too far inside the vast spaces of the USSR.

German eye-witness reporters accompanying the army stated that the "mightiest onslaught of the 20th century is now under way."

One German reporter wrote: "The Brest Litovsk fortress system is exposed to the heaviest shelling ever recorded in history. Since 3:15 a. m. Sunday massed German batteries of all calibers have been pounding the fortifications."

"The earth is trembling in a manner not one of us battle veterans has experienced before."

"Soviet artillery must have been silenced in the first few minutes, for we have not noticed a single Russian shell coming over."

"Concrete bunkers have been blasted apart like firewood. Huge sheets of fire are flaring up everywhere, with rumbling roars as Soviet munition dumps explode.

Shock Troops Cross

"Under cover of massed fire, German shock troops crossed the Bug river aboard pontoons and rubber boats and gained a firm foothold on the eastern side."

Another German correspondent, writing from an unnamed point on the Polish front, asserted that all the Reich's seasoned blitz troops from the European and African battlefields must have been "assembled against Stalin."

"It is an awesome spectacle," he wrote. "Fiery morning sun glows through the dark and then rosy, reddish smoke clouds beyond which lie the woods where the reds are being pounded."

"It is as if a mighty thunder storm were raging everywhere. I see the flash of guns and shells from heavy mortars and field guns of all calibers, which are hurling an incessant shock-fire against the red army."

Sun Is Blacked Out

"Huge blazes on the eastern side of the Bug river frequently send up such a pall of smoke that the sun is blacked out. Heightening the color effects, numerous tongues of fire are visible a few miles ahead, where our artillery must be raising havoc."

German military quarters declared that in yesterday's operations the Luftwaffe also proved its superiority over the Russian air force and is now securing control of the air over the battle area.

Important traffic, news and communication centers in the hinterland behind the red army, were said to have been destroyed on a vast scale by German air attacks and defenses were unable to prevent these blitz-like raids.

German bombers were declared to have smashed up Soviet tank and artillery columns wherever they were found, completely annihilating some of them.

Ammunition dumps were exploded and trains bearing Russian troops reserves to the front were destroyed and military barracks were rendered useless, along with numerous Soviet air bases, it was claimed.

In addition, the high command announced, German "mosquito boats" sank several Soviet coastal steamers in a surprise attack.

German authorities asserted that the Russian losses are increasing hourly and that heavy fighting was raging along the entire front.

Russian Tanks Poor

German troops discovered in the first few hours of fighting it was said, that Russian light tanks are of poor quality and easily shattered by armor-piercing bullets. The crews of most of them were killed instantly, military information said.

One regimental commander advised Berlin that his troops advanced ten miles into Soviet territory during the first four hours of fighting. Russian troops opposing the Germans were said to have surrendered or fled in disorder.

After initial hand to hand encounters, it was said, the Soviets gave it up as a bad job and retreated without even blowing up vital bridges.

Tension in the Reich that had prevailed since Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler's announcement of hostilities lessened perceptibly in the absence of massed Soviet air attacks which had been anticipated. Soviet officials, a spokesman said, had been "cocksure" in their predictions that the Red air force would raze the chief cities of Germany in the first 24 hours of combat—particularly Berlin.

The poor showing by Soviet war planes in East Prussia and Poland also was cited as an indication that the Russian air force is no match for the Luftwaffe.

Italian Nationals Ordered To Remain In U. S. At Present

Action Taken To Insure Compliance With Order Freezing Funds

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, June 22.—The United States today directed all Italian nationals not to leave the United States "pending further instructions."

The justice department issued the order to immigration officers, while treasury officials gave similar instructions to customs officials.

The action was taken to insure compliance with President Roosevelt's freezing order against Axis funds, issued a week ago.

Explaining the instructions, a treasury official said they were designed to prevent departing Italian consular officials and personnel from carrying out funds which had previously been secreted in the United States.

In seeking compliance with the president's order, the immigration and customs officers will conduct a close search to make sure that no American dollars are smuggled out.

All possible means of departure, including ships, trains, buses, airplanes and international border roads, will be watched closely, it was announced.

Boy Scouts Have Tenth Anniversary

First U. P. Church Scouts And Scouters Have Outing At Camp Clearhawk

Approximately 125 journeyed to Clearhawk camp, located in Jefferson State Forest, on Sunday to observe the tenth anniversary of the Boy Scout troop No. 3 from the First U. P. church, sponsored by the John P. Lockhart Bible class.

A flag raising ceremony was held at 10:30 a. m., followed by the Sunday school lesson. Ed Hawk, the scoutmaster, was in charge. Devotions were led by Elmer Gerlach. Roy Grafton taught the lesson, Elmer Nesbitt read the scripture lesson and John A. Edgar had charge of singing. This was followed by a sumptuous picnic dinner at noon.

In the afternoon, a mountain tour was enjoyed, the group traveling about 12 miles in all. They visited such places as Beartown Rocks, the fire tower and scenic views along the Clarion river. After swimming in the Clear creek pool, the outing was brought to close with the serving of a picnic supper.

Many Conferences

Occur In Tokyo

German-Soviet War Brings

Activities In Capital

Of Japan

By ALFRED DOWNS

International News Service Staff

TOKYO, June 23.—Leaders of the Japanese government and fighting services rushed to urgent new conferences today as public opinion in Tokyo smoldered under the impact of the German attack on Soviet Russia.

What was described as a "liaison conference" between the government and high command was held.

Highest officials of the nation—civil and military—discussed what an official announcement termed "important questions confronting

Japan."

Premier Prince Fumimaro Konoye

was received beforehand by Emperor

Hirohito and reported to the latter on "domestic and international af-airs."

Tokyo hummed with activity. But a government spokesman said Japanese action—or inaction—would not be decided upon probably for two weeks.

When the first news of the German attack on Russia hit Tokyo, the emperor called Foreign Minister

Yosuke Matsuoka and army and navy chiefs into conference at the Imperial palace.

Matsuoka also conferred with Premier Konoye.

Newspaper extras were rushed to the streets and throngs of excited

Nipponese citizens eagerly snapped them up to read this latest sensational development in the spreading war.

Japanese authorities admitted

without hesitation that Japan's position is a "delicate" one.

Legal authorities pointed out that

Japan under the tripartite pact is obligated to assist Germany against

Russia only if Germany is attacked.

At the same time, Japan has a mutual friendship and non-aggression pact with the Soviets, negotiated by Matsuoka himself last April.

FOLKSTONE, England, June 23.—

Huge formations of British bombers roared across the channel today,

keeping up an incessant attack on

German bases on the western front.

Low explosions reverberated

across the channel and were heard in Folkstone as the British planes dropped their bomb cargoes.

Coastal observers said the British planes seemed to be flying further inland than formerly.

Large numbers of British fighter planes patrolled the Dover Straits, keeping the coast free of German aircraft.

Burst of cannon-fire indicated dog-

fighting was in progress in the skies

over the channel.

An official announcement said that seven enemy fighters were destroyed during the attack while the British lost two planes.

to command real or personal property during the present emergency,

was placed before the senate military affairs committee today by Acting Secretary of War Patterson.

The new measure restricts the use of the draft powers to industrial tools, equipment and facilities, necessary to national defense, the original measure would give the president authority to draft any kind of property, real or personal in the name of the broad term of

"national defense."

The substitute bill, defining in general terms the kind of property

that can be drafted, was voluntarily

proposed to the committee by Patterson.

"This is of much narrower scope

than the original bill," Patterson told the committee. "It ought to fill all our needs."

The acting secretary of war added that the new measure is designed principally to break the bottleneck

in the machine tool industry.

"It will be 13 months before the machine tool industry can fill the orders it has on hand now," Patterson said. "The heavy bomber program will choke that industry

for over a year."

Incendiary Bombs Hurled Into Garages

Highlight Developments In Pittsburgh Trucker's Strike
Over Week-End

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, June 23.—The hurling of incendiary bombs into the garages of the strike-bound Western Pennsylvania Labor Relations Association, a trucking combine, today highlighted week-end developments as the work stoppage entered its fourth week.

The bombs, thrown at garages owned by Joseph Kenny, association chairman, consisted of half-gallon jugs of gasoline wrapped in flaming rags, police said.

Charles Printz, Jr., 23, Lawrenceville, who was painting the top of a trailer when one of the bombs was hurled, reported:

"I had the doors open about a foot for ventilation and I guess they opened them a little more to throw it in. The first I knew was when it landed on the floor between the trailer and the tractor, which were unhooked.

"It crashed and the gasoline spread around the floor underneath the trailer and tractor. I looked over the top and the flames were shooting up so high my hair was singed. The ladder I had used was already burning, so I had to jump down. There were a couple of extinguishers handy so I grabbed them and emptied both. It was sufficient to put out the fire."

Later a bomb was hurled into another garage, but was likewise extinguished before extensive damage could be done.

Conferences were to be held today, meanwhile, under the direction of federal and state labor conciliators in a fresh attempt to end the strike against the association's 178 members. Chamber of Commerce officials have declared the strike has "seriously interfered with national defense."

Col. W. J. Donovan Is Given New U. S. Appointment

New Duties Are Not Made Public

Will Supervise American Military Intelligence For President Roosevelt

IS PROMOTED TO MAJOR GENERAL

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHISON International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, June 23.—President Roosevelt today has commissioned Col. William J. "Wild Bill" Donovan of New York as a major general in the United States Army to supervise American military intelligence and to ally it with the British secret service.

General Donovan's new duties are so shrouded with secrecy that he may become known as the American "Mr. X." For one thing, he will report direct to the President, thus relieving him from orders of the secretary of war and army "brass hats."

There are indications that a new military agency will be created to be headed by Donovan. His staff will include experts from the state, justice and treasury departments, aides from the army, navy, and marine corps and technicians from such government agencies as the federal communications commission.

Capt. James Roosevelt, U. S. Marine Corps, son of the President, may become one of Donovan's aides. Young "Jimmy" has just returned from a trip around the world on intelligence matters.

Appointment of Donovan, a life-long Republican, to so important a national defense post has the endorsement of both Secretary of War Simon and Secretary of Navy Knox. Donovan has served for months as Knox's personal emissary on secret missions abroad. His choice is also reported to have the hearty encouragement of high British defense officials, who are seeking closer collaboration between the British and American intelligence services.

Donovan only recently returned from an extended secret mission to the Mediterranean and Middle East. He visited Bulgaria, before the German army over-ran that country, and both Yugoslavia and Greece, before their capture by the Germans. On his visit to Bulgaria, he lost his passport. He was barred from Syria by French orders.

We are especially indebted to Mrs. L. B. Round who designed the artistic and beautiful decorations at the Cathedral; also to the florists and artists who assisted her.

New Castle Firm Is Lowest Bidder

HARRISBURG, June 23.—William M. Clark & Co. Inc., of New Castle was low base bidder on two contracts for restoration of the old Economy Settlement at Ambridge, the General State Authority announced.

The contracts call for installation of heating facilities in the least hall and green house and installation of plumbing facilities in the feast hall.

The Clark company's bid of $5800 for the heating contract was low among six. The company's bid of $1260 for the plumbing contract was low among five.

Authority Secretary Thomas Frye said the contracts probably will be awarded this week if the bonds are acceptable. He added that construction probably will be started shortly after award of the contracts and will be completed within several months.

EAST BROOK

SHARE IN CONVENTION

The sixty-fifth annual convention of the Greater Presbyterial Women's Missionary society met at the Plain Grove U. P. church Thursday. There was a good attendance from East Brook present.

Several parts of the program during the day were taken by East Brook folks.

Five States Added This Year To Those Barring Use Of Firecrackers

CHICAGO, June 23.—Enactment of strict fireworks control laws by five states this year assures a more "safe and sane" Fourth of July next month for 11 states and about 10 per cent of the nation's population, the Council of State Governments said today.

Actually, the new laws bring to 14 the states establishing fireworks control on a state-wide basis. However, only the new Arizona and Maryland laws apply to this July 4; the new Minnesota, Ohio and Florida statutes will not become effective until after the holiday.

The other nine states with strict fireworks control laws are New York (law effective this year after enactment in 1940), Delaware, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Utah and West Virginia. All these laws were based on a model drafted by the National Fire Protection Association in 1938 after a study of the Iowa, Michigan and New Jersey statutes, considered at that time the only adequate laws.

The fireworks control laws provide for properly supervised public displays, operated under the permit and requiring a bond to cover possible injury to persons and property. Sale of fireworks for private use, or for other than supervised display purposes is virtually prohibited.

Effectiveness of adequate legislation, and especially, enforcement, is shown by a recent survey by the American Medical Association of Fourth of July injuries and deaths. Adoption of the strict fireworks control laws resulted in a sharp drop in the number of injuries from the total reported for the year preceding enactment of the laws.

Indiana, for example, reported 198 injuries from fireworks in 1939—before the control law went into effect. In 1940 under the new law, only two serious fireworks injuries were reported. Pennsylvania reported 1,700 injuries in 1938, before the state's fireworks control law was in effect. In 1939, however, the number was cut to 85 under the new law, and to 58 in 1940.

As for deaths from fireworks, there has been a steady decline in the number with only eight reported in 1940 due directly to the celebration of the Fourth of July. All but two of the fatalities occurred in states lacking adequate fireworks control legislation. For 1939, 1938 and 1937, death figures were 13, 18 and 20 respectively.

Initiation Of 36 Will Follow Dinner; Entertainment Planned

Two hundred reservations had been received today for the annual membership dinner of the New Castle Elks lodge in the Elks home Wednesday, June 25, at 6:15 p. m. Secretary Frank L. Clinefelter announced.

The dinner will be followed by initiation ceremonies for 36 candidates. Exalted Ruler Verne R. Carr and his fellow officers will be in charge. The night's entertainment will feature a floor show.

GARBAGE TRUCK HITS BICYCLIST

Elton Parks, aged 14 years, of 409 Epworth street, was struck by a city garbage truck, which was backing up in an alleyway near Epworth street, Saturday morning. He was taken to the Jameson Memorial hospital, where it was found his injuries were of a superficial nature.

Parks was riding a bicycle when struck, and the driver of the truck failed to see him.

SWIMMER INJURED

Jack Marietta, aged 13 years, of 637 South Ray street, suffered a laceration of the top of the head while diving in Neshannock creek near the old paper mill Sunday afternoon. He was treated at the Jameson Memorial hospital at 4:05 o'clock, where he was taken by Joe Henry of Croton avenue.

Couple Wed In Pretty Service

Mary Alice Patterson Is Married To Cornelius Newman, Saturday

ELLWOOD CITY, June 23.—In a pretty ceremony held Saturday morning at 8:30 Mary Alice Patterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Patterson, Pershing street, was married to Cornelius Newman, son of Mrs. Mary Newman, Petain street. The service was read by Rev. R. D. A. Wilkie, pastor of St. Agatha's Roman Catholic church, where the mass was held. She was given in marriage by her father.

The bride was most attractive in a toe-length gown of embroidered Swiss and she wore a finger-tip veil attached to a Juliet cap of fresh flowers. The bride carried a white prayer book.

The bridesmaid, a cousin of the bride, was Dorothy Jane Foley of New Castle. She wore a colonial frock of ice blue organza, a Juliet cap of sweet peas and carried a colonial bouquet.

A Russell Newman, brother of the groom, served as best man.

Following the ceremony, a breakfast was served to the families and guests at the home of the bride's parents. Later in the day Mr. and Mrs. Newman left for a wedding trip through the New England states.

After July 1 the bride and groom will live with the bride's parents, 301 Pershing street.

James M. Patterson, brother of the bride, was home from his Marine Corps station, Washington, D. C., for the wedding ceremony.

Same Place Site Of Second Crash

ELLWOOD CITY, June 23.—The second accident occurring at the same spot within the space of 24 hours saw a car leave the road at the intersection of the Wurttemberg and North Star roads to strike a supporting pole and guide cable plunging Wurttemberg and some parts of Ellwood into darkness Sunday morning at 12:30 a. m. when the electric cable fell to the ground.

The damaged car was driven by Bruno Barillano, 34 Franklin avenue. Riding with him were Angelo Manacuzzi of Summit avenue, who suffered a cut on the head and injured arm, Vito Terra, Franklin avenue, and Elizabeth Sartisch, of Butler.

The car was traveling west toward Portersville when the accident occurred and the accompanying crash and flame of the damaged transmission wire awoke the neighborhood. To add to the confusion the falling wire shorted the telephone communications causing telephones in the vicinity to ring continuously.

The injured man was taken to the residence of Dr. A. M. Giolitti, later to the hospital, for treatment.

Feel Effects Of Pittsburgh Strike

ELLWOOD CITY, June 23.—The Chamber of Commerce revealed today that local merchants are being hit sharply by the truck drivers strike in Pittsburgh. Hundreds of dollars worth of seasonal merchandise consigned to local stores are being held up in Pittsburgh warehouses. Local merchants are unable to obtain the merchandise with their own automobiles. One local merchant pleaded that he be allowed to load his car with a few bundles of merchandise that has been sold to local persons. A local garage reported that a great deal of their repair equipment is being held up by the strike and the irony of the whole affair is that the garage has to pay a daily storage bill.

With less than two weeks remaining before the vanguard of fall merchandise is to be shown, the merchants have a strong pressure on the local chamber to plead with both sides involved in the strike for an early settlement.

Two Men Make Perfect Score

ELLWOOD CITY, June 23.—For the first time since the Saturday afternoon shoot has been held by the Ellwood Rod and Gun club at their club house on the Wampum road, a perfect score was made when Red Radamacher, president of the Wampum club and Cy Ingham, sheriff of Lawrence County, each broke 25 targets last Saturday afternoon for a maximum score.

The next score, 23 out of 25 was made by J. Kuiken, Wampum. At 222 were Odd McCleary and Emil Alfonso of Ellwood.

Another of the weekly contests will be held on Saturday afternoon June 28.

SONS OF ITALY WIN IN TWELFTH

ELLWOOD CITY, June 23.—The Sons of Italy midgetball team defeated the New Castle Sons of Italy in a twelve inning game by a score of 4-3.

Ed Streit pitched a fine game for the victors and the finishing touch came in the last of the twelfth when Plugh pinch hitting for Greco, drove out a hard single scoring a man from third.

This game was one which had been previously postponed in the Lawrence County Softball league.

OH, FOR THE LIFE OF CENSOR!

The very, v-e-r-y pleasant possibilities of a life as a beach censor cannot be doubted after one looks at this picture. Because of his knowledge of fashions—he plays a male lead in fashion movie shorts—Life-guard Ken Griffith has been chosen as beach censor for Ventnor City, N. J. Dorothea Mae Conlen passed Griffith's test without trouble, but we suspect that the beach censor's mind was not on the tape measure.

Aged Woman Is Honored Sunday

ELLWOOD CITY, June 23.—Four-score years make a long life and for Mrs. Matilda McFate, 28 First avenue, the advent of her eighty-first birthday brought with it a dinner party which was given in her honor by her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Marshall Shadyrest, on Sunday evening at 6:00.

There were 39 guests present for the dinner and many came from other communities. After the dinner a picture was taken of the group and of the four generations represented there. Many lovely gifts were given Mrs. McFate by her children and her children's children. She also received a card shower from her friends and neighbors previous to the family dinner.

In the evening Mrs. McFate, Mrs. Tina Houk and Mr. and Mrs. William Marshall of Koppel, drove to Slippery Rock to take Norma Marshall back to school where she is studying this summer.

Merchants Will Gather Tonight

ELLWOOD CITY, June 23.—The Merchants division will hold a dinner meeting at the Elks hall tonight at 6:15 o'clock. Dr. Nixon of Philadelphia will address the division on "The Value of Farm Trade to Local Merchants."

Paul Reynolds, local manager of the J. C. Penney company, will be presented his "Chain Store Honor Roll Scroll" for outstanding community civic work as a chain store manager.

Another added feature will be a short movie film on last year's Merchant-Employee picnic held at Stoughton's beach last summer.

During the business routine a short discussion will be held on the Koppel Bridge and a special solicitation agreement which all local merchants will be asked to act upon.

President Howard Jones will preside over the business meeting.

Recent Bride Given Shower

ELLWOOD CITY, June 23.—A linen shower was held at the home of Mrs. William Hutchinson, Wurttemberg, for Mrs. Wilard Webster, Boardman Ohio, who was, until recently, Miss Pauline Boots.

Many lovely gifts were given the guest of honor and the eight guests enjoyed various games during the evening.

In serving the lunch, the hostess was assisted by Mrs. LeMoine French.

YOUNG PEOPLE TO GO ON HIKE

ELLWOOD CITY, June 23.—The members of the Young People's Council will hold a hike this evening, starting from the United Presbyterian church at 7 o'clock.

The hike will be conducted by Robert Taylor, John Caughey, Jr. and Clifford Jones. Afterwards, the group will return to one of the churches for refreshments.

The News by Mail for 1 Year, $5.00.

Jackstones Are Week's Project At Playgrounds

ELLWOOD CITY, June 23.—Jackstones will be the playground project on all city playgrounds this week. All girls 16 years or under, with June 1 the age deadline, are eligible. Winners of the individual playground will receive a dollar cash prize and the city champ will be the winner of the Sun-Gold trophy.

All girls interested are urged to sign up at any of the five city playgrounds.

Mrs. Mary Vargo Dies On Saturday

ELLWOOD CITY, June 23.—The death of Mrs. Mary Vargo, 89, widow of the late John Vargo, occurred Saturday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Simon, Ellport. She is survived by her daughters, Mrs. Simon and Mrs. Joseph Spisak, Fairmount, W. Va., and a son, John Vargo, Cleveland. The funeral will be held Tuesday morning at nine o'clock in the funeral parlors of W. D. Porter, Fourth street, and is to be continued at the St. Joseph Catholic church, Ellport, with the Rev. Father Martinich of Beaver Falls conducting the services. The burial is to be made in St. Agatha's cemetery.

Friends of the family may call at the Porter funeral home between five and seven o'clock Monday evening.

Local Man Dies In New Castle

ELLWOOD CITY, June 23.—Umberto Pessolano, 50, of 809 Beaver avenue, passed away at 1:15 p. m. Saturday in the New Castle hospital. The survivors include two sons and a daughter of the deceased, Carmen, Samuel and Columbia Pessolano; a brother Louis of Pittsburgh and Nicola Pessolano, another brother who lives in South America. A sister, Frances, resides in New York City.

The funeral services will be held on Tuesday morning at 9:30 a. m. in the Church of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the service to be performed by the Rev. Father Vincent Galliano. He will be buried in the Locust Grove cemetery.

Mrs. Pessolano was a member of the Sons of Italy Lodge.

Party Honors Anniversary

ELLWOOD CITY, June 23.—A surprise party was held Saturday for Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hutchinson by their daughter, Loreta, in the Hutchinson home, on the Ellwood, New Castle road. The party honored the 16th wedding anniversary of the couple.

Many lovely gifts were received by Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson from the 45 guests present, and a delightful repast was served by Miss Hutchinson, assisted by Misses Laetice Koach and Loraine Walker.

ELLWOOD PERSONALS

Fred Page, son Robert, and wife, also his son Frederick, and wife, Pittsburgh, visited at the home of the Harry Gabler family, yesterday. Mr. Page is a brother-in-law of Mrs. Gabler.

A dinner was held Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Goehring, Fombell in honor of Mr. and Mrs. John Kish with twenty-two guests present. Mrs. John Kish will be remembered as the former Virginia Goehring.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jenkins and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Jenkins, Harmony, Margaret Lepley, Zelienople, visited Sunday at the home of Jacob Jenkins brother, John Jenkins of Beaver. The families had a picnic supper.

The Rev. E. G. Osterhouse left this morning to attend a meeting of the Minister's Council of the Pennsylvania Baptist Convention. The Council will be in session until Wednesday at Bucknell University, Lewisburg, Pa.

"If we build more plants," said industrialists, "they'll compete with us after the emergency." And if you don't, there won't be any after.

No Parking Fees To Be Required Saturday Night

Mayor Charles B. Mayne stated today that parking fees will not be required in the future on Saturday night after six o'clock.

Some motorists received tags for parking after six p. m. Saturday. He said the ordinance calls for parking fees until nine p. m.

The mayor said that those who received the tags and present them at police station will be exonerated of payment, and anyone who paid for the tag will receive his or her money back.

The mayor said that he knew of no law that exempted parking after six p. m. on Saturday, and had ordered cars tagged last Saturday. He advised council today.

"Stores close at five p. m., or shortly afterward. With the sanction of my colleagues I want the parking ordinance amended so that motorists will not be required to pay a fee after the stores close."

He indicated that parking would be free after that hour as soon as the ordinance is amended.

Bicycle Thefts Charged To Boys

Three 14-year-old boys of Clifton Plats were held by city police today for questioning, it having been asserted they stole bicycles, six of which were recovered.

Information which led to their apprehension was obtained by Squire B. J. Thomas, South New Castle Borough. Detectives Moore and Thomas took the boys into custody.

They spent last night in the Lawrence County detention home and it is probable they will be given by Squire Thomas into custody of Juvenile Officer J. M. Dunlap.

One of the bicycles recovered was allegedly stolen from the city garage. Some of the bicycles had been torn apart then reassembled to prevent identification.

The bicycles recovered were owned by:

Francis Hodge, R. D. 5. Stolen from police garage May 9; George Menday, 413 Galbreath avenue; Fred Budzowski, 1314 South Jefferson street.

Three were stolen from the home of Clarence Jones, Edenburg. Detectives also reported the boys stole two bags filled with nuts from a fruit market in East Washington street.

News Briefs From City Hall

City of New Castle and County of Lawrence officials soon will confer with Lehigh Portland Cement company officials relative to a proposal whereby the various political sub-divisions, in lieu of taxes, would take over several hundred acres of ground owned by the company.

Judge W. Walter Braham, speaking as an individual to council, stated that where such a deal executed, it would prove highly beneficial were the land used for reforestation.

During council meeting held in city hall Monday, Councilman J. D. Alexander recommended a $170 day for employees not on a weekly basis. Council adopted the recommendation.

Contracts between Cascade Park concession owners and the city have been put before the Park commission for approval.

J. R. Rick Motor Car company today offered the city a 1941 Dodge sedan for $1,018, less an allowance of $150, for an old police car and also a Plymouth sedan for $910, less a trade in of $110, for an old police car.

Francis Motor Sales company offered the city a 1941 Ford sedan for $898, less a trade in of $123, for an old police car. The bids were referred to committee. Mayor Charles B. Mayne has asked for a new police car.

Because the lower house of the state assembly has refused to accept the report of Governor Arthur H. James estimated receipts, many due New Castle, cannot be paid until the governor's legislation is adopted, council was told today in a letter from Harrisburg. The letter specifically pointed out that the city therefore will not receive its allotment for the Firemen's Relief association until the legislation is adopted. The money when received by the city does not go into general revenue. It is paid over to the firemen.

WRONG MAN GOT LEGACY IN ODD MIX-UP OF NAMES

(International News Service) CAMBRIDGE, Mass.—He wasn't the right man, so James Vincent Maher, 32 Margaret street, Arlington, must return a legacy of $481.86, plus $25 interest.

So ruled Judge Harold P. Williams I, Middlesex superior court where Maher was charged with larceny of $481.86 from an Arlington bank and with perjury in connection with the making of an affidavit.

It was alleged that Maher received a letter from a California lawyer telling him of the death of a California resident and that if he signed an affidavit he could share in the estate. The letter was addressed to: James Maher, Arlington, Mass.

Some time later, another James Maher, this one a resident of Magnolia street, Arlington, learned of his legacy. Investigation revealed it had been paid to the other Maher.

James Vincent Maher pleaded nolo to the charge of larceny. The plea was accepted by Judge Williams, who ruled he must make restitution plus 6 per cent interest. The perjury charge was not pressed.

State Motor Police Welcome Visitors Entering State

HARRISBURG, Pa., June 23.—Out-of-state motorists coming into Pennsylvania through 11 different ports of entry are being stopped by motor police—but only to be welcomed, directed and assured the hospitality of the Keystone state.

Mark S. James, acting secretary of the state department of commerce, said today that beginning June 1, through the cooperation of Col. Lynn G. Adams and Lieut. Colonel C. M. Wilhelm of the Pennsylvania motor police, troop and squadron commanders placed men at specific ports of entry to distribute Pennsylvania literature to incoming motorists, and also to keep a count of the number of automobiles bearing out-of-state licenses and the number of occupants in each car.

Entry stations have been designated as follows: U. S. Route 40, near the West Virginia line; junction of U. S. routes 30 and 22 near Imperial, west of Pittsburgh, where tourists from Virginia, West Virginia and Ohio come into this state; U. S. routes 422 and 224 near their junction just west of New Castle; U. S. route 15 south of Gettysburg near the Maryland line; U. S. route 15 at Lawrenceville north of Mansfield in Tioga county near the New York state line; U. S. 611 between Portland and Stateford near the New Jersey boundary; U. S. routes 6 and 220 at their junction north of Towanda, and on U. S. 11 near Hallstead, both near the New York line; U. S. route 13 where it enters Pennsylvania from Delaware; U. S. route 1 south of Oxford near the Maryland line; U. S. 22 west of Freeburg and Allentown near the New Jersey line.

"It is expected," Acting Secretary James said, "that the number of cars and occupants counted this year at 11 of 74 entry points during the daylight hours of the four-month period, June, July, August and September, will greatly exceed 354,528 cars and 1,023,322 persons, counted in 1940 in the same period."

Mr. James gave the impossibility of travel abroad and better business conditions in this country as reasons for the anticipated increase.

Ex-Legislator Caught Speeding

(International News Service) HARRISBURG, June 23.—Caught breaking the 50-mile-an-hour speed law, E. Kent Kane, Republican, and former state representative from McKean county, has been fined $12.50 and deprived of his operator's license for 90 days, the State Bureau of Motor Vehicles disclosed today.

Ex-legislator was arrested by a state motor policeman while traveling at an estimated 60 miles an hour in Susquehanna township, Dauphin county, June 10, the bureau revealed. Kane has not yet asked for a modification of the ruling.

Accident Occurs On State St. Hill

Two trucks and an auto were reportedly involved in a crash on State street hill at 7:05 a. m. Sunday. Considerable damage occurred. However, no persons were injured.

According to city police a car and trailer driven by Paul Baldwin, Bad Ave. Mich., was descending the hill, skidded and struck a truck driven by Clem Brew, Indianapolis. Baldwin's car and trailer continued down the hill and then hit an auto driven by Al Fullwood, City, R. D. 5.

Mable Copper, Volant, reported her auto was parked in Croton avenue at Bratz' alley at 11:05 p. m. Saturday and it was struck by an auto going north in Croton avenue.

Imports of beeswax from Puerto Rico have risen to peak levels, the Department of Commerce reports.

U. S. Denounces Soviet Invasion

Statement Is Issued By Acting Secretary Of State This Afternoon

WILL CONSIDER REQUESTS FOR AID

By KINGSBURY SMITH

(International News Service Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, June 23.—The United States today denounced Germany's invasion of Russia and indicated that it will consider any request the Soviet government might make for American aid under the lend-lease act.

In a formal statement issued after consultation with President Roosevelt, Acting Secretary of State Sumner Welles declared that "the immediate issue that presents itself to the people of the U. S. is whether the principle of universal conquest, and the cool and brutal enslavement of all peoples for the ultimate destruction of the remaining free democracies, which Hitler now desperately tries to carry out, is to be successfully halted and defeated."

"That is the present issue which faces a realistic America," Welles said. "It is the issue at this moment which most directly involves our own national defense and the security of the new world in which we live."

"In the opinion of this government, consequently, any defense against Hitlerism, any rallying of forces opposing Hitlerism, from whatever sources these forces may spring, will hasten the eventual downfall of the present German leaders and will therefore rebound to the benefit of our own defense and security."

"Hitler's armies are today the chief danger of the Americas."

Knox Seeks To Retain Reserves For Emergency

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, June 23.—Secretary of the Navy Knox today ordered revision of enlistment articles for the marine corps reserve so that reserves now on active duty will be retained for the duration of the emergency "or for the duration of a war."

Knox's action followed establishment of a "stand by" policy for all U. S. naval reserves, and the war department's recommendation to President Roosevelt Saturday that the national guard and army reserve officers be retained on active duty beyond their one-year term for which they originally were called up.

Knox said that henceforth men enlisting in the marine corps reserve will sign an agreement that they understand they may be retained on active duty throughout a war or national emergency. Officials said there were 9,431 marine corps reserves on active duty who had not signed the agreement.

Memorial services were conducted Sunday afternoon by the Independent Order of Odd Fellows in a service sponsored by all of the lodges of Lawrence county, when tribute was paid to the memory of those who have passed away during the year. The service was conducted in the Central Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon.

Relief Rolls In State At New Low

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, June 23.—The downward trend of the Pennsylvania relief rolls was accelerated during the week ending June 14, when only 248,880 persons, the lowest on record, received assistance from the state, Secretary of Public Assistance Howard L. Russell announced today.

Following the trend of the relief rolls, Russell revealed that expenditures for the week also tumbled to the lowest figure in the state's history, $597,044.

Employment in private industry was given as the principal factor in reducing assistance cases. The greatest decreases were noted in Philadelphia, Allegheny and Lackawanna counties, while Schuylkill county registered an increase.

"The British attacked us," howl the French. "And you, poor innocents, did nothing but let the Nazis use your airfields and ports to land troops to kill the British."

No wonder Roosevelt won't trust business men with great power. They are the men of great vision who told him we had plenty of everything.

War is an auction in which objectives go to the highest bidder. England was willing to give $3,000 men for Crete. Hitler gave 20,000.

Rhododendron Is Nearing Period Of Fullest Beauty

Number Of Species Of Rhododendron To Be Found In Pennsylvania

(Special To The News)
HARRISBURG, June 23.—Blossoms of the native rhododendron or great laurel make their appearance in the state forests in June and are expected to achieve their greatest beauty during the early part of July, according to John R. Williams, director of parks, in the Department of Forests and Waters.

Sixteen species of rhododendron occur in North America, and numerous varieties and hybrids have been developed. At least five species have been found growing naturally in this state. The great laurel, with its ornate flowers, varying from pale rose to white in color, is considered by many to be our most beautiful flowering hardy broad-leaved evergreen shrub. Occasionally an individual plant may attain a height of 20 feet. Among the azaleas, which most botanists consider unseparable from rhododendron, the purple and white swamp species are common.

Rhododendron planted ornamentally as single specimens or massed groups are especially showy when backed by conifers which will also offer a most advantageous shelter. They grow best in a peaty or porous loamy soil, which does not contain lime or heavy clay and as a rule prefer half-shaded moist, but well-drained sites.

Where limestone or heavy clay prevails the beds must be specially prepared and filled with suitable soil to a depth of at least two feet. A mixture of peat or leaf-mold and sandy loam will make a suitable soil. Winter mulching with leaves, pine needles or other similar material to protect from frost is recommended. An occasional top dressing of well decayed manure will prove to be advantageous. Established shrubs can be successfully transplanted either during the spring or in fall, but care should be exercised when handling the plants.

All rhododendrons can be readily propagated by sowing the small seeds in spring. They should be placed in pans or boxes well drained and filled with sandy peat. Little or no soil covering is required when sowing the seed, which should be permitted to dry. These plants are slow growers and must be tended carefully, especially with their water requirements. Grafting is sometimes used to increase the numbers of desirable rhododendrons.

Lace-bugs may become serious pests and produce unsightly yellowish or brown spotting of the leaves, especially on plants exposed to the sun. These insects can be controlled by a thorough spraying with a contact insecticide, such as a nicotine soap solution. The applications should be made during May or June.

Rhododendron in its wild state is rare in the southeastern and western parts of Pennsylvania, but is abundant in the mountainous sections. A cordial invitation is extended to tourists and nature lovers to enjoy the beauty of the rhododendron and other wild flowers growing in the state forests of Pennsylvania.

Three Defense Contracts Here

By ARTHUR C. WIMER
(Special Washington Correspondent, New Castle News)

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 23.—The War Department reports the award of three additional defense contracts totaling $624,311, to New Castle establishments.

Two for chinaware went to the Shenango Pottery company. One of these aggregates $612,241 and the other $11,548. The third contract covers bushing bearings costing $522 and has been awarded to A. J. Ulmer.

Strange man. He slaves for money, so he can enjoy life, and thus misses the enjoyment he might have had free.

The Human Side Of The News

(By EDWIN C. HILL)

Copyright 1941 King Features Syndicate, Inc.

Personal journalism seems to have gone the way of the road show and many other more or less treasured institutions of a generation now graying over the cars. The passing of the road show, when you compare "Ingomar the Barbarian," for instance, with a good moving picture, doesn't seem to be much loss.

It seems to us that the people out on the kerosene circuit are getting a lot more for their money than they used to. The militant, free-swinging editor of three or four decades ago will be missed, although we now have newspapers better in many ways than their forebears. They seem to have broken the mold when they turned out Murat Holstead, Henry Watterson, Fremont Older and perhaps a half dozen more of the top battlers of the great ink-slinging town.

These men have been duly appraised by those who came after, but we have taken too little account of the little cross-road scribblers who used to get dangerously hot under their celluloid collars over the Turks, the tariff taxes, the county chairman, the postmaster, the gang in the city hall and, above all, busted European noblemen coming over here and marrying rich American girls. On this last, they all had a low combustion point.

We were pondering the above for two reasons. One was news of the demise of a venerable and esteemed little Indiana newspaper and the other was the arrival at this desk of Joshua K. Bolles' book "Father Was An Editor," published by W. W. Norton & Co., Inc. The small town lawyer and doctor have been effectively drawn in these nostalgic chronicles of our backward look. Mr. Bolles turns in an equally effective performance with the story of his father, who was editor of the New Milford Gazette.

I was chatting with Mr. Bolles the other day. He is a lean, whipper man, with no redundancy of mind or person, and he writes that way, too. He has a springy style, learned at a type-font where a space-grabber is a total loss, and there are no crocodile tears flowing from the soft pastels of the far-away years—the pictures come out clearly in the mist. Somehow this emotional reserve moved me more than the overt tear-jerking of similar tales.

If we may plagiarize a current phrase of great potency, these little country newspapers of our well-beloved yesterday were indeed "arsenals of democracy," two or three thousands of them perhaps, blazing away at anybody or anything which seemed inimical to the public good, regardless of whether or not they could see the whites of its eyes or just its vague, general outlines. Some of them were pig-headed and cantankerous and some of them knew how to duck. But on the whole, they were a fighting breed and they belonged to what Booth Tarkington has called a "nice loose trade."

If the mortgage shark or the sheriff got them in one town, they could scrape together a few tons of type and an old flat-bed press and start whamming away in another town.

Collectively they kicked up a thundering excitement about public affairs, large and small and they were true stimulators and educators of our formative democracy. And that, on the whole, seems to have a nice old, manageable flat-bed world which sustained them, sometimes precariously, and they used to worry and fuss a lot about getting it set right. It isn't their fault that it seems to be coming to no good, and there is many an one among them, a grim viewer with alarm who could now say, "I told you so," if he were alive.

Read Mr. Bolles' book for the lovable least common denominator of the lot of them, just footloose and free enough to rip the daylight out of anything he didn't like and may-be get mad enough to bust up a bit of office furniture as a preliminary gesture to a brimstone editorial. He's a lovable old curmudgeon, a bit wasteful at times, capable of great moral indignation endowed with instinctive courage and decency. He's there, as large as life, and so is the old print shop, not forgetting, of course, that institutional old office towel. Father is 100 per cent human and you'll like him.

DAILY DOZEN

(From the Medical Society of the State of Pennsylvania)

What goes on in the brain of man? This complex organ works silently and without mechanical movement. Yet the brain is now being spied upon by physiologists.

It is done by electroencephalography, which records "brain waves." Brain diseases produce definite disturbances in the brain beat.

The electroencephalogram shows electrical activity of the brain. Variations from the normal brain waves are being understood.

Especially in diagnosis and treatment of epilepsy is this true. The amount and type of disorder present is indicated.

The electroencephalogram gives warning of approaching seizure. Excessive electrical discharge from brain precedes convulsion.

Electroencephalography uncovers the secret workings of the brain.

Stimson Orders Reorganization Of Army Air Corps

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, June 23.—Secretary of War Stimson has announced a far reaching reorganization of the army air corps to provide for its greater autonomy, and, at the same time, placed the war department on record as firmly opposed to establishment of a separate independent air force "at this time."

In letters to chairmen of the house and senate military affairs committees, Stimson revealed that he had issued orders combining the army air forces, the GHQ air force and the air service branches of the air corps into "a single unified organization."

"This," Stimson wrote, "will thus combine both combat units and service units and the entire organization will be under a high ranking air officer who will be responsible only to the chief of staff of the United States army."

"Furthermore, an air staff has been established in connection with this new organization."

Romance broke out in a rush in the court house Saturday. The marriage license bureau looked like an old fire lunch counter, and all of the folks were there for the same purpose, to get licenses. All morning long the counter was crowded, so crowded that it was impossible to get the record for the marriage license application column for The News. It's June.

Two sentences were handed down Saturday morning by Judges W. Walter Brahm and Charles Matthews, Jr.

Clarence Jenkins, in violation of parole, was given from one to four years in the Allegheny County Workhouse to date from November 10, 1939.

John Roth, Sr., in for assault and battery was fined $50 and costs.

Saturday, June 28, will be the last orphan's court final accounts day until fall. A number of estates are listed for final audit.

July 14 as been set by the court as the day for hearing divorce application, the last until fall. The summer months promise to be quiet around the court house, save for candidates.

Saturday, June 21, was the first day to secure signatures to petitions for candidates to have their names placed upon the ballot at the September primary.

A number of candidates took advantage of the first day to get signatures around the court house. Signing up everybody around the court house gives a candidate a good start upon his petition.

A judge candidate will be nominated by Republicans and Democrats, a district attorney, a sheriff, a register and recorder, two jury commissioners, two city councilmen, a city controller and three school directors.

WANTED: FOLKS WHO NEED LOANS TO READ ABOUT THIS PLAN

—Rates are not the same at all loan companies—
Here are facts and figures to help you shop for your loan
—Read how you can borrow $20 to $300

HAVE you a money problem which a personal loan will help you solve? Here is a simple way to borrow without endorsers or guarantors—and at rates substantially below the lawful maximum. If you have a job and can make monthly payments you are invited to come in and see us about getting a loan up to $300.

Suppose that you need $100. Find this amount in the first column of the table. Then read across picking out the monthly payments convenient for you to make. Twelve monthly installments of $9.75 each, for instance, will repay a $100 loan in full, or, as little as $6.97 a month for eighteen months, will also repay a $100 loan.

All you do

All you do to apply for your loan is to acquaint us with your problem. Loans are made on furniture, car or note.

But we attach far more importance to character and regular income than to the value of security. It is unnecessary to ask outsiders to sign the loan papers with you. And at no time do we question friends or relatives about your credit.

Get your loan for less

The payments in the table include all charges. These charges are calculated at Household's rate of 2 1/2% per month on that part of a balance not exceeding $100, and 2% per month on that part of a balance in excess of $100. The Small Loan Law permits us to charge a substantially higher rate than this. Some finance companies do charge a higher rate. We publish our payments and rate of charge so that you may compare costs before you borrow. Phone or visit us for full information without obligation.

Rampaging Giants Down Cards Twice

Dodgers Take Two From Reds, Bobby Feller Wins
His 15th Victory
Of Season

By PAT ROBINSON
(International News Service Staff Writer)

NEW YORK, June 23.—The Brooklyn Dodgers and New York Giants may be ancient rivals, but today they were each thanking the other for a helping hand in the National League pennant race.

Through another of those strange quirks that turns the supposedly helpless Giants into a power club, New York polished off the pace-making St. Louis Cardinals in both ends of a doubleheader. The Dodgers, meanwhile, administered the same unorthodox treatment to the Cincinnati Reds. The net result is that Brooklyn gained two full games and the Cardinals and now trail them by only one game and the Giants collected an extra two games of leadership over the Reds, whose recent rush toward the front ranks has taken them no farther than fourth place.

Walter Brown's relief hurling in the ninth inning of both contests saved the Giants' pair of victories, but Carl Hubbell got credit for the 4 to 3 decision in the opener and Johnny Wittig was the official winner of the 3 to 2 nightcap.

Yankees Win in Ninth
A crowd of 35,792, an all-time high number for the Cincinnati ball park, saw the Dodgers gain a 2 to 1 edge in the 16-inning inaugural game when Frank McCormick's wild throw hit the winning run home. Kirby Higbe hurried a three-inning victory for Brooklyn in its 3 to 2 nightcap victory.

The New York Yankees, although unable to advance a notch against the leading Cleveland Indians in the American League, beat Detroit 5 to 4, with a ninth-inning rally, but more important they established a major league record in twisting the Tiger tail.

With Joe DiMaggio and Red Rolfe slugging out homers, the Yanks have chalked up 29 four-ply clouts in 18 consecutive games. Both the number of round trippers and the number of successive games tops the mark set by Detroit last year.

DiMaggio, meanwhile, boosted the number of consecutive games in which he has hit safely to 35, which is six short of the modern record held by George Sisler.

The Indians, with Bobby Feller winning his 15th game of the campaign, bested Washington, 6 to 0. Feller scattered seven hits and the

Elders Defeat Ryantown 4 To 1

Faller Pitches Swell Four-Hit
Game As Elders Grab
12th Win

Faller hurled a swell four-hit game for the Elders Sunday as his mates drove out a 4 to 1 win over the Ryantown team in a city league battle. It was the 12th win for the Elders in the league against one defeat.

The Elders climbed on Fisher for 10 hits, with Gibson, Eddie Todd, Faller and Kolik having doubles, the latter smacking out two doubles. Tuesday night at Marshall field the Elders and Lawrence Indies tangled in what should be the classic of the season. An Elder victory will deadlock them with the Indies for the first half lead.

Slippery Rock GOLF ACES HOT

Alex "Chinkie" Dutkin came within a hair's breadth of tying the course record at Sylvan Heights course Saturday afternoon, when he scored a 69, and with Ted Bukowski, a teammate on the Slippery Rock State Teachers' college team last spring, had a best ball round of 64, eight under par.

Dutkin joined the group, which also included "Tinky" Lombardo and Ted Lach on the No. 5 hole, and finished out the first four holes later. He had only one bad hole, the narrow No. 3, and got into trouble trying to make his drive too good.

Between them, Dutkin and Bukowski had nine birdies for the 18 holes. Par for the course is 72.

GALEHOUSE NO LONGER TELEGRAPHS PITCHES

ST. LOUIS—Denny Galehouse, one of the surprise pitchers of the current season, has overcome one of the most serious sins of twirling—telegraphing pitches.

Hitherto, he telegraphed so plainly that batters knew what to expect. Recently he twirled a one-hitter against Washington and followed with a four-hit performance against the Yankees.

LOUIS' COUSIN

Joe Louis' family is represented by another mighty slinger. He is Jack Buddy Walker of Columbus, O. Walker, who has dropped two decisions and held to a draw four times in 36 fights, is recognized as Ohio heavyweight champion.

BLIND GRAPPLER LAUDED

Jacob Twersky, a blind, 21-year-old sophomore, is rated by Coach Joseph Sapora as one of the best wrestlers he ever has coached at City College of New York. Twersky won seven of his eight matches this season.

BOYS ON THE BENCH

The Brooklyn Dodgers bench sometimes is a family affair, such as recently when Dolf Camilli's two sons and the youngsters of Mace Brown and Mickey Owen sat in the dugout to watch their papas play ball.

TILDEN TELLS HOW

Old Mr. Tennis Tilden—Big Bill himself—is engaged, professionally of course, in giving lessons in tennis at a New York club court. He has a month-long schedule.

CUNNINGHAM STILL RUNS

Glenn Cunningham, old master of the milers, works out on a cinder track at regular intervals. He calls it "tapering off" from his former strenuous spike campaigns.

CHURCH LEAGUE GAME

There will be but one game tonight in the New Castle Church Softball League, the Mahoning team battling the Second U. P. team at Lehigh field at 6 o'clock.

STANDOUT ATHLETE

Johnny Drish has been voted the University of Illinois outstanding athlete of the year. He captained the basketball team and pitched for the diamond squad.

ANNOUNCERS TRIED

When the new sponsor was obtained for the nationwide prize fight broadcasts, about 25 prospective blow-by-blow announcers were given try-outs.

HARRY GUMBERT, GIANTS' PITCHER

Harry Gumbert, Giants' pitcher, hails from Elmhurst, Pa., not very far from Pittsburgh, but until he joined the Giants, he had seen only one National League game in his life, a Brooklyn-Phillies contest at Ebbets field.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS LAND

Johnny Ray, manager of Billy Conn, has threatened to break off relations with Promote, Mike Jacobs if Mike puts Lou Nova into the ring with Joe Louis in September.

Old Furnace blanked the Youngstown Rangers in polo at Zelenople, yesterday, 15 to 6. Taylor Run is clear and low. Ben Hogan and Jimmy Demaret, both Texans, captured the seventh annual $7,000 Inverness invitational four-ball match at Toledo, O. Byron Nelson and Jimmy Thomson finished second. Whirlaway annexed the $10,000 Dwyer stakes by beating Market Wise at Aqueduct, Saturday.

Robert Morris was third. Harry Bobo and Mike Alfano, heavyweights, will fight in a scheduled 10-rounder tonight in Pittsburgh. There will be no boxing here tonight. However, next Monday night will find the amateur batter slugging in the arena. The card will be announced by the Jefferson A. C. Tuesday.

Civics Top Dewey; Shamrocks-Bush Tie

City-County Independent Baseball League games played Sunday produced considerable thrills. The Shamrocks topped the Union Civics, Horcher whipped the Dewey A. C. 8-1, limiting his foes to three hits. Clark laced a triple for the winning nine while J. Adams three bagged for the losers.

Score by innings:
Civics ..... 100 000—1 3 1
Shamrocks ..... 211 13X—8 10 3
Batteries: Horcher and Adams; Clark, Dewey, J. Adams and G. Adams.

RAMS-BUSH TIE

New Castle Ramblers and Bush A. C. finished in a 3-3 deadlock darkness bringing a halt to hostilities in the eighth.

Bishop Hermo and Johnson were feature hitters. Hermo, for the Ramblers, fanned 15 batters.

Score by innings:
Rams ..... 011 010 0—3 3 0
Bush ..... 210 000—3 4 0
Batteries: Rams, Hermo and Peluso; Bush, Buckingham and Davis.

Softball Loop Games Tonight

There will be five Lawrence County softball league games on the menu for this evening. It was announced. All games will start at 6 o'clock.

The Columbus team will go to Hickory Heights to play the Valtrems. The New Castle Sons of Italy will battle the Elport Tigers at the Elport field. The Rads will play the Sunny Boys at Gaston Park. The Elwood Sons of Italy will play the Fanfals at Rose avenue, and the Johnson Bronze meets the Donofrios at Progressive field.

NEW CASTLE GIRL Rolls High Score

Miss Mary Richard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Richard, Euclid avenue, rolled an exceptionally fine score in the W.I.R.C. at Los Angeles, recently. She headed the list in the Ten Pin singles, turning in a 668.

Her nearest competitor in the tourney was Miss Joan Garrett of Oklahoma who rolled a 662. The bowlers were from California, Oklahoma, Illinois and Kansas.

BASEBALLER'S DAUGHTER

Louise Suggs, the sensational 17-year-old golfer of Lutha Springs, Ga., is the daughter of Johnny Suggs, former pitcher of the New York Yankees.

NOW SELLS PROGRAMS

Remember Speedy Dado? The little Filipino, a top boxing attraction several years ago, is now selling programs at the Los Angeles fight clubs.

AGE NO BARRIER TO BOWLER

Jim Gorman of Sioux City, Ia., began bowling when he was 50 years old. He is 83 today and still frequents the kegling alleys.

CARLEN GETS CHECKUP

Ray Carlen, manager of Heavyweight Lou Nova, recently underwent a physical checkup at Mayo's clinic in Minneapolis.

Prohibit Sale And Use Of Fireworks

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, June 23.—Pennsylvania motor police have been ordered to keep a strict lookout for violations of the anti-fireworks law over the Fourth of July holiday.

Police Commissioner Lynn G. Adams pointed out that the sale and use of fireworks is banned except at public displays for which a permit has previously been secured.

Strict observance of the law will help make this another year in Pennsylvania without a single fire-works fatality, he said. No fatalities and less than 100 persons injured was last year's record, compared to eight fatalities and 1702 injured in 1939, the last year of unregulated sale and use of fireworks.

There are two kinds of females, including relatives: Those who entertain and praise a man, and those who point out his faults.

Judge Braham Reaffirms Ouster

BEAVER, Pa., June 23.—Judge Walter W. Braham has reaffirmed a previous order ousting four members of the Beaver Falls municipal authority.

The judge dismissed exceptions filed to his order ousting Mayor Glenn W. Major of Beaver Falls, and Councilmen Edward A. Sahli, Sam Arant and L. M. Kelly from the municipal authority.

The court held that it was "contrary to sound public policy and, therefore, void for them as councilmen to appoint themselves to the board of authority."

Governor Vetoes Amendments To State Liquor Law

Declares Bills Entering Wedge To Split Wide Open Li- quor Control System

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, June 23. — The legislature's first attempt of this session to amend the state liquor laws was marked by failure as Gov. Arthur H. James vetoed two bills designed to encourage the sale of natural wines.

The bills were an "entering wedge" to split wide open the liquor control system, charged the governor, adding that "approval... would be of little or no benefit to any deserving thereof, and would open wide the door to uncontrolled traffic in wines."

The bills would have authorized manufacturers of natural or unfortified wine to sell their products directly to retailers without regard to price-fixing regulations of the Liquor Control Board. All wines are now sold through the board's state stores. Approval of the bills would make it "vastly more difficult, if not impossible, to enforce the laws relating to liquor (including natural wines as defined) if retail dispensers were allowed to buy natural wines direct from the manufacturer or producer, and to sell the same to the consumer," stated the governor. He pointed out that "there would be over 21,000 privately-owned retail outlets for the sale of natural wines, as opposed to 576 Pennsylvania liquor stores."

The two bills were passed by the house on May 29 and approved by the senate on June 10. They defined natural wines as a grape product not fortified with alcohol.

"I fully recognize that the Pennsylvania grape growers are presented with difficulties that we would be glad to see solved," said the governor, "but I do not believe they should be answered by taking them from under the supervision and control of the Liquor Control Board."

The governor suggested the 1937 act be amended to permit a limited winery license for grapes grown in Pennsylvania under "reasonable conditions fixed by the legislature."

U. S. Navy Notes Of Interest Here

William M. Magee, 218 East Falls street and William C. Williams R. D. No. 3, Greenville, Pa., were enlisted to serve until they become 21 years of age. Magee was vice-president of the June graduating class of New Castle High school.

Martin R. Schuster, R. D. No. 1, Greenville, Pa., and Alfonso M. Grappone, Oil City, Pa., were enlisted for six year terms.

Alton L. McGill, Harrisville, Pa., was enlisted in the Naval Reserve, to serve during his minority.

President Roosevelt has signed the bill exempting from the draft all men who have served three consecutive years in the Marine Corps, Coast Guard or the Navy. The new law also exempts men who have spent one year in any of the three services and two in the reserve.

Previously only men who had served in the Army were exempt under the provisions of the Selective Service Act.

Ex-Navy and Ex-Marine Corps men who have already been inducted into the Army and who are eligible for exemption under the provisions of the law, may be discharged upon application to the commanding officer of the post or station where they are in service.

The 35,000-ton battleship, "South Dakota," the third of its kind to be built in our drive toward a two-ocean Navy, was launched at Camden, New Jersey, June 7. When this ship is commissioned we will have eighteen battleships. This latest "giant of the seas" will cost over $53,000,000. As soon as the South Dakota left the ways, the keel for the 10,000-ton light cruiser Sante Fe was laid immediately.

lots can be procured by calling on either James D. Clarke or William McClymonds. The company at first contemplated having a public sale of lots; but as the cost of the grounds and the improvements which have been made upon them, already amounts to some six thousand dollars, they do not at present feel able to incur any additional expense not absolutely necessary, and as a sale of lots by auction would have to be made by the county auctioneer, the proceeds of this sale would be subject to a tax of 10 per cent; the company have therefore concluded to dispose of the lots at private sale.

THE SHOW. On Tuesday next, Barnum's Grand Colossal Museum and Menagerie will be exhibited in New Castle. It has been highly spoken of in many of our exchanges, and can be seen for a quarter. It will certainly afford our citizens an opportunity of seeing many specimens of nature's freaks that are not of every day occurrence.

Writes Parody On Famed Army Artillery Song

"The Caissons Go Rolling Along" Has Been Mechanized

(International News Service)
FORT WARREN, Wyo., June 23. — The famed artillery song, "The Caissons Go Rolling Along," hasn't been able to keep up with the army's new motorized units. So there's a new version.

The parody is contained in a new edition of army songs distributed through the post by Orvil E. Stiles, chaplain of the 183rd National Guard Regiment of Idaho.

Replacing the familiar stanzas of "those caissons go rolling along," the substitute contains such new verses as:

"Over hill, over dale, motorized from head to tail,
With the caissons and horses all gone.

Stop to fix up a flat, or get the captain's hat,
Motor trucks with the pieces hooked on."

The chorus includes:
"Sound off your Klaxon loud and strong! (Squawk, squawk). No more we'll go, with a team in tow, if our motors keep buzzing along."

Other lines that reflect the spirit of the new mobile army are:

"Gone are those bags and grass,
As we feed with oil and gas
Hear the bold bugles blow,
Amplified by radio."

And:

"Shove 'er guy, into high,
As the green lights flicker by."

And finally, in the last stanza:

"If our engines go dead,
Won't our faces get red!
With the caissons and horses all gone.

For the foemen, of course,
Will yell at us, 'Get a horse!'
Motor trucks with the pieces hooked on."

Expect 65,000 To Register July 1

Accuracy To Be Watchword
For Second Registration
For Selective Service

HARRISBURG, June 23.—Accuracy will be the watchword in the second Selective Service Registration on July 1, Dr. William Mather Lewis, state director, said today.

Revised regulations covering the registration, in which approximately 65,000 Pennsylvanians are expected to be added to the Selective Service to be added to the list to insure that every registration is effected thoroughly and with extreme care.

Only one registrant will be permitted to approach the registration table at any one time.

The registrar will first determine the color of the registration card to be used—white if the registrant was born before October 16, 1919 and black if he was born between October 17, 1919 and July 1, 1920.

The registrar will then ask the registrant to answer the questions in the order numbered on the registration card and each answer will be entered by the registrar in the proper space. If the registrant's answer to any question is not clear, the question will be explained fully and repeated.

The registrar will take plenty of time and will extend every courtesy to the registrant.

All entries on the registration card will be made by the registrar and must be clear and readable. The registrar will take every precaution to insure that every entry is correct.

If the registrant refuses to sign a registration card or is unable to do so, his name will be written by the registrar, who will sign his name, and the act of the registrar will have the same force and effect as if the registrant had signed the card, and the registrant will thereby be registered.

Boy Scout Camp Season Is Near

Registrations Being Accepted
For Season Which Opens
Here On July 7

Lawrence County Boy Scout camp opens officially on July 7, and from all indications, this will be one of the best seasons the camp has ever had. With camp director, Nick Cassio in charge, the boys are assured the very best in camp.

A program of health, safety, education and fun, are all being coordinated into one glorious time in each week of the four-week camping period. Even with four weeks in the season, only so many boys can be accommodated each week and first in first served. Registrations are being received daily at the scout office, Greer building.

Among the many new things that are being planned for the camp this year by the camp committee is a new and much larger nature hut, and there are persistent rumors that the camp will have a shower bath this year.

The menus are being planned now, and what menus—all the good things a boy likes, and plenty of it.

Applications must be sent in immediately, and scouts are urged to get lined up for at least one week if not two or three. All applications will be considered in rotation, as received.

The camp savings plan that was inaugurated sometime ago will enable many more boys to attend the camp this year, and most of them will be able to say that they earned the money that paid their way to the camp.

"Life insurance companies last year paid American families $7,397,000 a day.—Ed. But when they pay out, they only pay back what we all pay in.
